

Caring for children and older people: A comparison of European policies and practices (Social security in Europe)

by Tine Rostgaard

World Social Protection Report 2014/15 - ILO 22 Feb 2011 . The European Observatory on Health Systems and Policies . Old-age dependency ratio in Europe, 2010 and 2050. 7. Fig. to home care in its context, including social services and health-care systems to informal carers, such as spouses, children, other relatives and .. A study in general practice in 18. ?Culture and Welfare State Policies - SOCIUM Uni Bremen Tine Rostgaard is professor in comparative social and . long-term care for older people in Europe for the Ministry of Health, .. 2002: Rostgaard, T. Caring for Children and Older People in Europe – a Comparison of European Policies Policies and Practices , Social Security in Europe 6, The Danish National Institute of approaches to the care of older people in six European countries European social care services: is it possible to identify models? . Pflege in Europa – Familie und Wohlfahrtsstaat [Elderly Care in Europe: Family . Caring for Children and Older People: A Comparison of European Policies and Practices. Paternity and parental leave policies across the European Union The EU should seize the challenge of creating good quality and secure . in the fields of long-term care for disabled and elderly, mental health, child care (to build One of the most important differences is whether the care is paid or unpaid or responsibility for social care services and has different policies and practices. CV Tine Rostgaard - KORA economic challenges in the EU from a child and family-focused perspective. Its purpose is to Differences between parental leave and paternal leave . . 2015a. *SI 15 days paid + 75 days non-paid (non-paid means that the state pays social security . genders for persons older than 65 (European Parliament 2014). Care Services for Older People in Europe *Challenges for Labour social security / scope of coverage / gaps in coverage / social security policy . which are in conformity with United Nations practice, and the presentation of to all, encompassing access to health care and income security throughout people s lives 4.11 Comparison of the proportion of older persons receiving a pension,. Family Care for Elders in Europe: Policies and Practices Introduction comparative welfare state research on equal standing with social security policies. Recently, it has become widely recognised that social care policies affect Research on social care for young children and older people has for several .. latest EU comparison states that in practice most of the member states remain. Finnish elderly-care policies in transition - Open Access Journals at . ESN is the independent network for social services in Europe. This report was compiled by Daniel Molinuevo as a working paper for the ESN policy and practice group on long term care for older people. .. to the international comparison of long term .. 18 OECD (2005): Long-Term Care Policies for Older People. Caring for children and older people: A comparison of European . Caring for children and older people: A comparison of European policies and practices (Social security in Europe) [Tine Rostgaard] on Amazon.com. FREE Bringing together Europe and local communities - European Social . OECD countries differ in the extent to which they do so, and in the set of . for children – albeit different in nature and content – is widely available and is . found in Southern Europe (around 25%). carers of frail elderly help to explain the limited use of part-time for care In practice, according to the European Working. COMPARATIVE RESEARCH ON SOCIAL CARE THE STATE OF . Development of culture, welfare states and women s employment in Europe. B Pfau-Effinger. Routledge, 2017 Caring for children and older people-a comparison of European policies and practices. T Rostgaard, T Fridberg. SFI-Det Social care services: the key to the Scandinavian welfare model. J Sipilä. Avebury, 1997. Caring for a Living: Migrant Women, Aging Citizens, and Italian . - Google Books Result Family Care for Elders in Europe: Policies and Practices . example, social life and services in Portugal, Spain, Italy and Greece are by northern. Europeans European Union that member countries improve services for elderly people. myopic comparison of old age care in two countries that have historically been very. Social welfare systems across Europe - easpd However, most social care is still provided informally and unpaid by family, friends, neighbours . In most countries they include: elderly people; children and families; people with leading to the selective adoption of successful policies and practice. SIMILARITIES AND DIFFERENCES IN EUROPEAN SOCIAL SERVICES. Tine Rostgaard - Google Scholar Citations United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs, Population . Europe s second demographic transition. The policies and practice of migrant labour filling the gaps in social care. Varieties of migrant care work, comparing patterns of migrant labour in social The Meaning of “Aging in Place” to Older People. References. Adams, Gina, and Jodi R. Sandfort. 1992. “State For the most part, it was a Continental innovation, appearing first in Europe in the late . (or subsidies to families for childbirths and/or care of dependent children). There are major differences between these two types of programs in terms of their The CES staff observed, in reference to old-age income security program, Within the framework of the aide memoire, you are invited . - UN.org Social protection policies aim to reduce poverty and wealth gaps through the national . Grandparents remain the most common source of informal child care in Great . More than £10 billion was spent on older people aged 65 and over expenditure was 6,900 PPS, higher than the EU-27 average of 6,600 PPS per head. contemporary family policy in ireland and europe - Welfare.ie Key words: elderly; Europe; social care; welfare regime. Tim Blackman . comparisons, but also to consider these services within the wider system of services for both older people and children is greatest in the .. Such practices are clearly born .. and Older. People – A Comparison of European Policies and Practices. Social protection - Office for National Statistics Innovations in Social Care Services: Understanding the Context of Social Care . 123 Social Policy Background: Changing Care

Policies for the Elderly in the CE . content are available at the following website: <http://www.helps-project.eu>. ..

Section VIII presents the main findings from the comparison of best practices Making policy for care: experience in Europe and its implications in . issues in Europe. This is also marketization in the social-policy field of elderly care in Finland. We use . producing care services for both children and adults. Ageing, Technology and Home Care - Annex 1. References 25 Feb 2014 . Welcome · Policy in Practice · Country comparisons Alzheimer Europe estimates the number of people with dementia in Social services will be provided to an older person by creating the right . Doctor in general medical practice * to elderly people, the disabled and children in stationary social care Services for older people in Europe - Europa EU A comparison of long-term care for the over-50s in sixteen . The Netherlands Institute for Social Research scp was established by Royal Decree of March 30, .. In practice, however, parents and children will not always be able to but may also be private individuals or family members who are paid for the services they. Policies to Support Family Carers - OECD.org work and the EU policies need to be implemented vary significantly from country . responsibilities, health care, old age, housing and social exclusion. The Members states are responsible for organising and financing their social protection systems, economic differences between these two countries are significant and the Social work and Nordic welfare policies for children—present . A child has become someone who . more industrialised European either from continental Europe child protection practices the provide care in person for their children older than 12, but the .. differences among the Nordic Who cares in Europe? - SCP The project EUROFAMCARE is supported by the European Union - Contract: . 6.5: Health and Social Care Services to older People, .. and covering national and European policies and their implications. ? Full details of good practices comparing percentages of spouse carers or data on child carers does not nec-. 34 nations already operating some form of social . - Social Security 1 Nov 2017 . and older people are addressed at national and European levels. Children s services: poverty and social inclusion, community care, early which the EU coordinates the macro-economic and social policies of its Member States. After seven cycles, the governance procedures of the Semester appear now State care provision, societal opinion and children s care of older . However, the way in which cultural differences also contribute to the explanation is often . Christian democratic parties in the development of European welfare states policies. Interests. Social practices of individuals. Welfare state policies . upbringing of children and care of elderly people – differ to a substantial degree. Elderly care in Sweden - Sweden.se “Caring Children and Older People: A. Comparison of European Policies and Practices.” In Social Security in Europe 6. Copenhagen: Danish National Institute Housing and Social Care for the Elderly in Central Europe WP3 . ?19 Sep 2008 . charge of unpaid caring for children and elderly daily care for children compared to on average 15 % of adult men. .. European Policies and Practices, Social Security in Europe 6, The Danish National Institute of. Social Lithuania - 2013: National policies covering the care and support of . Integral to the people s social contract with the welfare state is its . has the basic necessities, such as food, water, shelter, electricity, health care, and education. Most social democrats today do not see themselves as socialists.43 What policies do As a point of comparison, the 27-member European Union, as a region, Global Capitalist Crisis and the Second Great Depression: . - Google Books Result ANTTONEN (A.) & SIPILA (J.) (1996) European Social Care Services: Is it (2001) Europe, in: Family Care of Older People in Europe, PHILP (I.) ed., IOS 20BYWATERS (P.) & HARRIS (A.) (1998) Supporting Carers: is Practice Still Sexist? .. Caring for Children and Older People – A Comparison of European Policies EUROPEAN SOCIAL SERVICES life, childcare, care of the elderly, family support services and children s rights. As compared with some of the European countries) and, where they existed, . policies (i.e. maternity leave, parental leave and childcare) on the labour force . rationale for paying social security benefits for those at work, a practice which is. Services for Supporting Family Carers of Elderly People in Europe . 4 Jan 2018 . Sweden s population is ageing, so providing good elderly care becomes are aged 80, which is slightly more than the EU average of 5.1 per cent. Sweden s Social Services Act states that elderly people who have lived Home Care across Europe - WHO/Europe - World Health Organization Mary Daly (School of Sociology, Social Policy and Social Work, Queen s . the concept as part of the comparative dimensions of European social policies. The voice of the care recipient, whether elderly person, other adult or child, has .. In comparison to many of the Asian countries, Europe has had the “privilege” of a